SOUTHEAST CONVENTION ISSUE

Twelfth Annual Meeting

April 25-26, 1964

A Report By The President Of Southern Union College

Greetings from all of us at Southern Union College. The spring quarter has just begun and for the tenth consecutive quarter there has been an increase in enrollment over the same quarter last year. There are several new students enrolled for the first time.

The dean's list for the winter quarter was announced by Dr. A. R. Van Cleave and there were three students that had a straight "A" average or a quality point average of 3.00. Twenty-two students made 2.3 to 2.9 quality points or "A" and "B" honor roll.

Two new faculty members have been added to the staff. Rev. Charles Häzel is teaching sociology and Mrs. Louise Cox, a Southern Union Alumna, is teaching speech and world geography. The addition of these two persons completes the faculty for the spring quarter.

The Southern Union Singers are having a busy spring. They will sing for various school chapel programs, civic groups, and will participate in the annual Junior College Music Festival to be held at Marion Institute.

The Singers made their annual tour of Florida, have sung on two television programs, have given several radio programs, and sung in the churches of this area. If any other churches of the area would like for the singers to present a program, please contact the director, Mr. Beaman Griffin.

The Bisons completed a good season in basketball, having won third place in the Dixie Junior College Conference Tournament. Two men were placed on the all-tournament team—Clif-

Without exception, the denominations express concern over the declining enrollment in our training programs for the parish ministry. Across our country there is a constant search for promising young people and encouragement offered in the form of scholarships. Enlightened self interest suggests churches participate in this effort, since all churches at some time may have to scan the horizon for a minister — when God calls and his servants answer, let it be said of us we helped make possible the preparation so essential in the work of God's Kingdom.

The Congregational Christian Foundation at Vanderbilt is your investment in the churches of the Southeast, and we seek your financial assistance for scholarship aid.

ford Crumley, Oxford, and Craig Helms of Andalusia. Baseball season has gotten underway and Coach Al Rochelle reports much desire and enthusiasm among the team aspirants. All home games are played on the Southern Union diamond and if you are in our area, we would welcome you to attend these games.

The last of the College Community Concert Series will be April 20th. Miss Ethel Donaldson and Richard Collins will be the guest artists. Miss Donaldson has won Metropolitan acclaim and Mr. Collins has appeared as soloist, nationwide. He was formerly with the music department at Auburn University and is presently on the staff at Florida State University.

The annual Board of Trustees meeting was held on April 2nd and 3rd, 1964.

The president was elected president of the Alabama Junior College Association at the annual meeting held recently in Birmingham. He succeeds Sister Mary Lourdes Michel of Sacred Heart College. Serving with Dr. Graham will be Dr. Rex A. Turner of Alabama Christian, and Miss Bessie Mae Young of Snead College.

We would welcome each of you to visit the college so that we can show you what we are doing and to thank you for your prayers and support.

Committee On Stewardship And Missionary Education

Because of the illness of the committee's elected chairman, the Rev. A. Ray Meserve, the committee was a little slow in getting started this year. The committee has greatly missed the wise leadership of Mr. Meserve and has profited greatly in the past from his commitment and experience.

The Stewardship and Missionary Education Committee has been concerned with the same emphasis that it has always tried to convey to the people of the Southeast Convention. That is, to inform you as to the total mission of the church and the importance of your being involved in this total mission.

The committee is also aware of the fact that there has been a great deal of misunderstanding concerning the use of Our Christian World Mission funds due to the formation of the United Church of Christ and also because of the racial tension throughout the world. Therefore, the committee has attempted to provide information to each association committee as to how these funds are actually used. If you happen to be a little confused about this, please call upon your association committee of the convention committee for this information. This information will also be distributed at the annual meeting of the Southeast Convention to all delegates.

We have been very fortunate to have the regional secretary of the Stewardship Council of the United Church of Christ available to give us counsel and guidance concerning our program in the Southeast Convention. Rev. Karlton C. Johnson has already proved his great value to the work of the committee. He has the experience and ability to make the mission of the church come alive to each of us so that we will better understand just what is meant by the Mission of Christ's Church. We are very grateful to him for his assistance.

We look forward to the coming year as being one of the best for the Southeast Convention as we all serve the living God together through out support of Our Christian World Mission.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold C. Henderson, Chm.

Superintendent's Report

For the year 1963 the Southeast Convention reported a total of 105 churches to our national offices. This figure includes 3 inactive churches. 8 churches were dropped from membership during the past year. Of these, 7 had been relatively inactive in association and convention affairs for the past several years. One, however, was one of our active churches.

71 churches have voted to be a part of the United Church. 20 have not taken action either way. 14 have voted not to be a part of the United Church.

The total membership of the convention now stands at 8554. This represents a net loss in membership for the year of 555, of which 372 were in the dropped churches.

The churches reported total current home expenses of $372,947 and capital payments of $163,689 — a total of $536,636. This is an increase of about $45,000 over the previous year.

The record is not as bright in the area of benevolences. Our Christian World Mission contributions came to $32,093 and total benevolences to $41,935. This is a decrease in OCWM of $1,372 and a decrease in total benevolences of $3,191.

We still have not reached the minimum goal of 10 per cent of current home expenses for Our Christian World Mission.

The total value of church property is reported as $4,000,000.

It is quite evident we must be concerned about the evangelistic index of our churches. We are not securing new members at a sufficient rate to offset our losses. We must also be concerned about starting new churches.

Finally, we must be concerned about our stewardship. We must be about our mission.

The Report From The Churchmen's Fellowship

The activities within the Churchmen's Fellowship this past year have been different. To begin with, the Board of Directors of the Southeast Convention created the Committee on Lay Life and Work, which was requested a year ago by the Women's Fellowship and the Churchmen's Fellowship. We have spent most of our time in learning to make our cooperation work.

We held our Churchmen's Fellowship retreat last June 8th and 9th. Although our attendance was low, the program was tops and those who did not attend were the losers.

Laymen's Sunday was observed in a great number of churches, with laymen taking charge or playing a leading role in the service that day. It is hoped that this movement will be pushed and expanded further throughout our churches.

We cooperated in making plans for the Southern Regional Workshop early in December. This Regional Workshop held in Atlanta on February 21, 22, and 23, and which was led by Mrs. Emily Lester, Southern Regional Secretary, had representatives from all the southern states from Virginia to Texas. This Lay Life and Work meeting represented the leadership of the Lay Life and Work throughout this area. The new "program opportunities" material for use in the 1964-1965 year was presented at this time. While the same emphasis is being used again this

Mrs. F. C. Lester Banquet Speaker

Mrs. F. C. (Emily) Lester of High Point, N. C., Southern Regional Secretary for the Council for Lay Life and Work of the United Church of Christ, will be the speaker at the annual banquet Saturday night in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Southeast Convention.

Before assuming her present position on January 1, 1963, Mrs. Lester was on the national staff of the Congregational Christian Women's Fellowship.

A native of Winter Park, Fla., and a graduate of the University of Florida, Mrs. Lester has been active in the work of the Congregational Christian Churches and the United Church in the Southern Region for many years.

She has served as president of the North Carolina Congregational Christian Women's Fellowship and the Women's Fellowship of the Southern Convention of Congregational Christian Churches.

Mrs. Lester is married to Dr. F. C. Lester, who is editor of The Christian Sun, weekly publication of the Southern Convention.

year, the material is much improved and arranged in a more logical order within the binder.

This year we are cooperating with the Women's Fellowship in staging a Lay Life and Work workshop on May 15th and 16th, just three weeks from now. We hope that the lay leaders, both men and women, in each conference or association will attend this workshop. It will be a wonderful opportunity to learn about the "Program Opportunities" material and how to use it in the local situation. This material has been prepared strictly for use by the various organizations or units within the local church, and they are ideal for use in this situation.

This workshop on May 15th-16th will be under the leadership of Mrs. Lester, the Southern Regional Secretary. Plan to be there. Details have been sent to each conference or association.

Rufus G. Obrecht, President

The Report Of The Women's Fellowship

Upon the resignation of Mrs. Noel Allen, who had been elected president at the Southeast Convention Women's Fellowship annual meeting, the Executive Board voted to ask me, as the president-elect, to become acting president. Because I already had major responsibilities with the Atlanta Y. W. C. A. it was understood that I would attempt only to attend official meetings where women should be represented.

The Executive Committee of the Women's Fellowship recommended that the major effort this year would be given over to the task of planning and participating in leadership training workshops.

The first of these was planned for February 21-23, 1964, for lay leaders of the entire southern area and held at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta. Those invited were men and women presidents of convention and state-level organizations.

The second workshop is being planned for May 15-16, 1964, at I. T. C., where key leaders (both men and women) from the association or district level of the Southeast Convention, the Southern Synod (Evangelical and Reformed) and the Convention of the South are being asked to attend.

Another activity involving lay men and women was the Southern Regional Meeting of the Stewardship Council held in Atlanta February 24, 25, 26, 1964, for the leaders of the southern area. I acted as one of the section convenors.

This has been a profitable year in the training of leaders in our Southeast Convention, and we look toward greater participation of men and women in the Lay Life and Work of the United Church of Christ.

Report Of Committee Ministry And Churches

While statistics do not make for the most stimulating reading, there are facts concerning the status of the ministry in the Southeast Convention that should be of interest to each of us.

101 ordained ministers with full standing in our national fellowship have their membership in the associations and conferences of the convention.

There are 7 ministers with Conference Ordination, which grants them all the rights and privileges of an ordained minister within the boundaries of the convention.

15 ministers are licensed by their respective associations and conferences. 1 ministerial student is In Care of Association.

7 ministers of other denominations or laymen serve churches within the convention.

Of the 108 ordained ministers, 63 are pastors of local churches, 8 are actively engaged in religious work, such as chaplains, missionaries, denominational staff, etc., 19 are retired, 6 are involved in the teaching profession and education work, and 12 are in business and other professions.

Report Of Committee Survey And Church Aid

Those who attend the national meetings of the United Church of Christ find themselves excited by the evident growth and unity expressed in the significant increase in membership and budget.

It is evident that if we are to keep pace in the Southeast Convention with the growth of our national denomination we must become vitally concerned about starting new congregations in areas of population growth.

Perhaps that is why we take satisfaction and some pride in the apparent spiritual growth of our relatively new churches in Huntsville, Ala., and Montgomery, Ala., served respectively by the Rev. W. Raymond Berry and the Rev. Harold C. Henderson. Those attending the convention may expect to hear a first hand report from these churches.

We have other churches and ministers whose continued ministry is made possible by financial aid by the convention. Not to be forgotten is the financial support that comes to our area from the Board for Homeland Ministries. We, therefore, express our thanks for the interest and investment made by them in our behalf.

The following is the schedule of aid voted for 1964:

Report Of Committee Christian Education

The Christian Education Committee was divided into three sub-committees at the beginning of this convention year — Leadership Training, Mrs. W. Raymond Berry, chairman; Youth Ministry, Mrs. J. Kermit Harris, chairman; Summer Camp, Rev. Warner D. Noles, chairman. With each sub-committee specializing in its respective field much broader horizons were possible.

Under Mrs. Berry's leadership the Christian Education Associates (CEA) visited many of the churches in the Southeast Convention, offering invaluable assistance in introducing, familiarizing and interpreting the new United Church Curriculum.

Mrs. Harris' committee on the Youth Ministry served in advisory capacity for the youth of our convention by opening new avenues of religious thinking. The youth met in planning sessions, workshops, and their annual convention, taking steps forward in the best Christian tradition.

Rev. Warner Noles is serving his third term as chairman of the Camp Committee and plans are well under way for a successful camping program. Camp leadership sessions have been held and correspondence with prospective campers and churches is in progress. The youth of our convention are being urged to attend for a week of inspirational fellowship and fun.

The Christian Education Committee held its regular meetings in August and January. During the January meeting a time was set aside to meet with the Convention of the South's Committee and plans are well under way for a successful camping program. Camp leadership sessions have been held and correspondence with prospective campers and churches is in progress. The youth of our convention are being urged to attend for a week of inspirational fellowship and fun.

The Christian Education Committee held its regular meetings in August and January. During the January meeting a time was set aside to meet with the Convention of the South's Christian Education Committee and ideas of the two committees were shared.

Report Of Committee Christian Social Action

Christian Social Action has been the concern of the entire leadership of the convention during the past year as plans were formulated for the formation of a United Church Conference in the southeast. The bi-racial nature of the area was the number one problem as the realignment committee worked on its recommendations to the Board of Directors of the Southeast Convention. Other committees, of course, have been concerned with this problem as they projected plans for the future.

The Southeast Convention and Convention of the South conferences in Kentucky and Tennessee have met jointly for the past two years, and co-operated in the camping program during 1963. The young people of the two conferences voted at their joint meeting last fall to elect only one set of officers for 1963-64.

One church in the convention took a delegation to call on one of the U. S. senators from the state, to urge his support of the Civil Rights Bill before the Senate.

The chairman of the convention's Committee on Christian Social Action attended the Witness in Washington March 23-25, 1964, to call on the senators in the nation's capitol on behalf of the Civil Rights Bill.

Many things have been left undone in the convention area, but it is hoped that when we are all one (as Jesus so earnestly prayed) we might set our hands to the many unfinished tasks.

Respectfully submitted,

Clyde C. Flannery, Chairman

Report Of The Moderator To The Annual Meeting

The year 1963 was a most eventful year in the life of the United Church of Christ. The delegates to the General Synod, which met in Denver, Colorado, last July, took some rather bold steps in an effort to make the United Church relevant to the problems of our times. We may agree or disagree with the methods and procedures recommended, but as members of the United Church we are guaranteed that inherent right.

Now we come face to face with the problem of making our convention an integral part of the United Church by taking action at the annual meeting in Chattanooga which will bring into being one Conference of the United Church, which will be composed of ALL our U. C. C. churches in the area. The Board of Directors voted in January of this year to recommend approval of the plan which has been presented by the Committee on Reorganization and Realignment. The provisions of the plan have been published in The Southeast News and copies have been sent to all ministers and churches of the convention. There will be ample opportunity for discussion on the floor of this proposal.

A paragraph from the 1963 report of Moderator J. Kermit Harris seems to be very appropriate at this time, and with apologies to him I would like to repeat it in my report. I quote:

"The Christian concept of a United Church of Christ moves toward reality. It has been nothing less than thrilling to have joined with your representatives in the pursuit of this reality. True, there is yet much to be said and done; however, we should be encouraged and reassured by the fact that what has been done and said has been done and said in the spirit of Christ. Ours is a great heritage; it remains so only as long as we are Christian."

Thus we come to the time when we must complete some of our church work so that we may be about the work of the church.

As your moderator, I attended the Convention of the South (Negro) as a fraternal delegate last June at its meeting in Atlanta. In July I was a delegate to the General Synod meeting in Denver. Along with the other delegates from the convention I opposed the imposition of certain restrictions upon the use of funds of the denomination, specifically where a church has not declared its membership open to all people.

The Soddy, Tennessee, church observed its 100th anniversary in August, 1963, and along with our Superintendent, I represented the convention on this historical occasion.

I also attended a special service at the Wadley, Alabama, Congregational Christian Church, which was held last Fall in observance of the completion of 40 years of service to the church and community of Southern Union College.

There were many other events and occasions which time and circumstances did not permit me to attend. To that extent, at least, I failed in my duties as your moderator. I do want to say, however, that in spite of our trying problems, it has been a real pleasure to work with our superintendent and your elected representatives during this most eventful year. We have fallen short of our goals in Our Christian World Mission giving and in much of our other efforts, but let us go forth with courage in the knowledge and faith that "He bestows upon us His Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the Church of Jesus Christ."

Respectfully submitted,
W. Pressley Ingram,
Moderator

Report From The Church Builder's Club

It has truly been a pleasure and honor to serve the past two years as president of the Church Builder's Club. As you know, the Russell Woods Church at Phenix City, Alabama, has been the project for the past two years. I feel the funds that were granted to the Russell Woods Church were very much needed and appreciated by the people of the church.

However, in closing out my tenure as president, I feel that at the annual meeting we should close out the project and commence a new one, Huntsville or Montgomery. Inasmuch as the Huntsville project was first I feel it should be the next project.

I further recommend that the by-laws of the club be amended to limit the club to one project a year, but also to increase the membership to $10 per project. This would leave the membership with the same possible maximum cost per year.

I further urge cooperation from all the churches in striving for a minimum goal of at least 10% of the membership of each church as members of the Church Builder's Club.

Respectfully submitted,
Freddie Powell
President
